

City Ethics for New Employees

Sign-up through
TRAIN

Ethics & Compliance Team
(512) 974-2180
ethicscompliance@austintexas.gov

Voicing our PRIDE Values

This course presents an overview of ethics as it pertains to City employees. It covers such topics as conflicts of interest, receiving gifts, and the use of City resources. Scenarios are used to create class discussion and help participants think through common ethical dilemmas in the workplace.

New employees should complete this course during their probationary period.